Voting Rights

Time Needed: One Class Period

Materials Needed: Student worksheets, PowerPoint (paper option also available)

Copy Instructions:
Student materials (class set; double-sided)

Learning Objectives

Students will be able to:
- Identify the laws and amendments that altered U.S. voting laws
- Identify obstacles to voting
- Determine whether individuals living at various times in U.S. history would have been able to vote

Step by Step

- ANTICIPATE

  the lesson by asking the following question stream: “Have you ever voted in some kind of election or contest? When and for what? Were there rules for who could vote? Why do we have rules for voting?” (if they are struggling mention American Idol, Student Council, etc.)

- DISTRIBUTE

  the So you think you can VOTE? student worksheet

- REVIEW

  the instructions and structure of the student worksheet.

- RUN

  the So you think you can VOTE? PowerPoint. Read through the slide show with the students, asking any relevant questions that come up.

  - OPTIONAL: Ask the students to identify the message or content of the images provided. (Poll tax political cartoon, woman with newspaper, etc.) Ask, “What can we learn from the image that helps us with the facts on the slide?”

- PAPER ALTERNATIVE: You may use the Voting Rights Chart to support or replace the information in the PowerPoint presentation.

- MONITOR

  that all students are actively filling in their worksheets as the slide show progresses.

- REVIEW

  Voting Rights chart and instructions for ‘Do They Have the Right to Vote?’ independent assignment. Read through the example question together.

- ASSIGN

  the completion of the worksheet.
